WPSS 1891 of 03:
Old No. 1281 of 1993
Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

Misc. Application no. 1953/07:-

Heard Sri B.P.S. Mer, learned counsel for the applicant/petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the State of Uttarakhand.

This application has been filed on behalf of applicant/petitioner nos. 12,13,18,19,24,29 and 36, namely Ishwar Pal Sharma, Kamla Kant Joshi, Kalam Singh Thapa, Udai Veer Singn, Jai Singh S/o Khamank Singh, Devi Das S/o Ishwar Das and Meer Mohammad. Learned counsel for the applicants/petitioners has submitted that in view of the order dated 06.02.1997 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam as well as order dated 15.04.1997 passed by Chief Engineer, the grievances of the applicant/ petitioners have already been redressed by the Department and the writ petition has become infructuous so far the applicant/petitioners are concerned.

Since, by the instant petition as many as 109 petitioners have prayed for identical relief and by the orders dated 06.02.97 and 15.04.97 the grievances of the above named petitioners have been redressed. The rest of the petitioners have not prayed for any other relief, thus the writ petition has rendered infructuous.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the applicant the writ petition is dismissed being infructuous.

All the pending applications stand disposed of.
